

DDAY 1944
FREEDOM FROM ABOVE
THE AUGMENTED EXHIBITION
 AIRBORNE STE-MERE-EGLISE

COMMEMORATE THE AMERICAN SOLDIERS GLORIOUS VICTORY ON D-DAY

HISTOVERY

Landing zone, 1944 © Histoverly

LIVE THE STORY OF THE FIRST D-DAY HEROES

Experience the D-Day landing through the eyes of paratroopers who liberated Sainte-Mère-Eglise with D-Day: Freedom from Above the Augmented Exhibition. Using an interactive tablet, the HistoPad, visitors explore interactive 3D recreations of 14 key moments and places of the Sainte-Mère-Eglise battle including the 82nd and 101st Airborne briefing on June 4th, the parachute jump into the village, the battle at Pont de la Fièvre, and even a military field hospital at La Colombière. The interactive components allow visitors to manipulate gear, tools and weapons, meet key figures, and watch real archival footage.

1500 to 6000
 square feet (modular)

100 to 300
 HistoPad tablets

6
 languages

- Versions for visitors with disabilities
- Analytical data and feedback from visitors
- Annual updates
- Email collect
- Scavenger hunt and other fun features

Developed in partnership with leading historians, the exhibition combines the best in physical display and augmented reality technology to create a fully immersive and engaging historical experience for people of all ages.

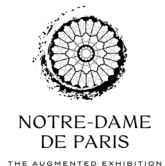

Visitors' Reactions at the NMUSAF

On TV

Exhibition trailer

BY THE CREATOR OF NOTRE-DAME DE PARIS, THE AUGMENTED EXHIBITION

In 15 countries including at the:

PROVEN SUCCESS:

National Museum of the U.S. Air Force in Dayton, Ohio, and the U.S. Army Airborne & Special Operations Museum in Fayetteville, NC, hosted D-Day: Freedom from Above and due to the exhibition's popularity, it will return to the US in 2024.

To learn more or host D-Day: Freedom from Above, leave us a message.